Massimo Bonfante represents RAYLASE in Italy

RAYLASE AG optimizes its sales in Italy to satisfy customer needs better. Massimo Bonfante will support this and represents the RAYLASE AG exclusively in Italy. The increasing sales of RAYLASE products on the Italian market required the operational readiness level and support locally. Bonfante has since 2004 business contacts with RAYLASE. He is the solely representative partner for Italian prospective customers. Besides that RAYLASE AG ceased its cooperation with ALASE Technology Inc. and supplies since beginning of 2006 its own processing software weldMARK™ to Italian customers. The customer contact can be further intensified through the close co-operation of both partners.
